

ProPets

WHAT TO LOOK FOR IN A GOOD PET SHOP

A good pet shop should:

- Offer expert advice from well-trained staff on all aspects of responsible pet ownership
- Offer a polite and courteous service
- Offer a positive approach to after-sales advice and assistance
- Be clean, tidy and well stocked
- When selling pets, offer animals that
 - Are healthy and of a suitable age and size
 - Have a supply of clean, fresh water and food, as appropriate
 - Live in a suitable environment
- Be a member of a professional organisation

For further information: www.propetsgroup.org.uk

